Volume 8 Number 2 A Newsletter for BASC Employees and their Families December 2010

Executive Director's Corner

Here we are in the middle of the holiday season. I hope everyone had a nice Thanksgiving and had an opportunity to enjoy time with family and friends before the mad dash to finals and term break.

It feels a little like this whole semester has been a mad dash and the pace seems to get faster each year. This year, we have a large freshmen class and an even larger group of transfers that has kept us hopping in all our operations. There have been 70 retirements this fall of people across the campus making a big difference in the way the campus works and feels. In addition, the ongoing budget problems we all share in New York are having enormous impacts on all SUNY campuses, including ours (and that is likely to get worse before it gets better).

Those are a lot of challenges all at one time. Neither BASC nor the campus want to just survive them, we want to find ways to thrive through them and continue our histories as successful organizations and community members. Both BASC and the campus want to continue to be the place where our students get a great experience and great education.

The campus is working hard to define how it will face these challenges. As a result of that planning, we know a few things. We have talked about student success for many years. Now we have a better definition. Student success at Brockport means students get a great education at a great price, they value their experiences on campus in and out of the classroom, and they graduate and become valuable members of the communities in which they live and work.

To do that while the world around us changes means BASC needs to continue to deliver our best, every day, AT THE SAME TIME AS we plan aggressively for the future. At BASC we have a good head start on that. Last year, we anticipated some of these changes and we developed a five year strategic plan to help us face them. We made some organizational changes over the summer to position us to implement our new dining vision. As the campus works its way through this, BASC will take responsibility for some things previously done by the campus. Specifically, we will have some more changes coming as we figure out how to incorporate college events into the BASC organization over the next few months.

When you return in January, we will be celebrating our 60th birthday together. We have a long history as a strong organization - assisting, supporting and enhancing the campus community with the BASC touch. As we move into the next 60 years, our contributions will be even more important to the success of the campus community and to the success of our students.

Best wishes to you and your family for a happy holiday season. Looking forward to seeing you in January to celebrate our birthday!

Diane

BASC is you!

A recent graduate reflected on her freshman experience here at The College at Brockport. Her comment shows how important you are as a BASC employee and the impact you have on students. "The last thing that helped Brockport feel more like home was the people, especially professors and the people who work at the dining halls. They made Brockport feel like home. The people on campus will do almost anything for you to make you feel welcome and to love this place as much as they do. It rubbed off on me, because after thinking of leaving the first semester, I decided to come back my sophomore year." - Elissa, Class of 2010

Scholarships for Employees and Relatives

BASC is able to offer two generous scholarships that can help benefit a BASC employee, or a child/relatives of an employee.

The Sandra Mason Scholarship is available to provide financial support for a child or relative of a current or former employee of BASC, including the College Bookstore and Parking and Transportation Services.

The BASC Employee Scholarship was established by to recognize full-time, union, or part-time hourly employees who do have access to any other educational benefits provided by BASC to pursue higher educational opportunities at The College at Brockport or the MetroCenter. Scholarship awards are based on the availability of funds and are awarded on a first-come, first-award basis.

For more information on these scholarships including the application process and requirements go to www.basc1.org under the employees tab.

Student Scholarships

BASC is excited to announce that we have money available again for student employee scholarships this year! Thanks to Barnes & Noble who has provided $10,000 for the Barnes & Noble College Bookstore/BASC Scholarship and Next Generation who has provided $5,000 for the Next Generation/BASC Scholarship, a total of $15,000 is available for student scholarships.

These scholarships will be awarded through the Brockport Foundation and may be used for educational expenses at The College at Brockport as long as the student remains an employee of BASC.

BASC student employees who work in Administration, Dining Services, Bookstore, or Parking and Transportation Services and meet designated criteria are eligible to apply. Managers, full-time, and part-time employees may encourage those deserving students to apply and offer to provide them with a letter of reference.

More specific information, including the timeline for the application process, has been emailed to all student employees. You can also find information at www.basc1.org under the employee tab or contact Betty Drennen at x2497.

Faculty and Staff Campaign

Each fall the campus kicks off their annual Faculty and Staff Campaign. This year's campaign focuses on Brockport pride as we celebrate the College's 175th anniversary. This year the goal is to raise $175,000 and encourage 100% participation.

Funds from this campaign benefit the Extraordinary Scholarship Fund, providing scholarships to our brightest applicants.

As you may be aware BASC has two scholarships available that accept fundraising efforts through the Faculty and Staff Campaign. The San- dra Mason Scholarship, available for relatives of current and former BASC employees, and the BASC Employee Scholarship, available for permanent, hourly company employees who take a course(s) at the College.

If you would like to make a donation to this year's Faculty and Staff Campaign, call Ralph Eisenmann at x5213 for a pledge card.

Any BASC employee who makes a donation will receive a complimentary BASC cookbook.

Santa's Coming!

Santa is busy making his list and checking it twice. He's looking forward to seeing all the BASC children and grandchildren at the annual Kids' Santa Party on Saturday, December 18. Festivities will take place at Brockway Dining Hall between 10 am and noon. Word has it that Santa may even be bringing an early gift for children ages 9 and under. But this party isn't just for kids. Santa wants to see all you adults, too. There'll be plenty of photo opportunities—not to mention cookies and milk for everyone.

Even if you don't have a child to bring to the party, come and enjoy the fun with your co-workers. For any questions contact head elf Betty Drennen at x2479.

Tip of the Issue: Four Common Food Myths

With the holidays quickly approaching there's sure to be lots of food and festivities everywhere you go. When it comes to cleaning, prepping some foods, and storing leftovers, people may be unaware that they are using the wrong method.

Listed below are four common food myths taken from the September 2010 issue of the Food Management magazine. These common myths are things to keep in mind as people get together during the holiday season.

Myth: Leftovers are safe to eat until they smell bad.

Fact: There are many different types of bacteria, some of which cause illness to people and others that don't. The types of bacteria that cause illness don't actually affect the taste, smell, or even the appearance of food. Because of this it's really important to freeze or toss refrigerated leftovers within three to four days. If you're unsure of how long it's been, you should probably just throw it out.

Myth: I use bleach and water to sanitize my countertops and the more bleach I use the more bacteria I kill.

Fact: There is no advantage to using more bleach. It actually can be harmful because it's unsafe to consume. The recommended amount to use is one tablespoon of unscented liquid bleach per gallon of water. Wipe down the area, then pat dry.

Myth: I don't need to wash produce if I am just going to peel it.

Fact: Harmful bacteria can be on the outside of the fruit or vegetable, but if you peel or cut it without washing it first the bacteria can transfer to the part that you consume. With delicate produce, run under cool water and blot dry with a paper towel. Firm produce should be rubbed under the running water or scrubbed with a clean produce brush.

Myth: The stand time recommended for microwaveable foods is optional.

Fact: When an item calls for stand time it's not about cooling the food before you eat, but rather a part of the cooking process. The food itself has to reach a safe internal temperature to ensure more thorough and even heating.

As the rush of the holidays come and go make sure to keep these common myths in mind while preparing your festive meals. As always, have a happy and safe holiday season.

Lot V Reopens Ahead of Schedule

Parking Lot V, located on New Campus Drive just west of the Tuttle Athletic Complex, will reopen for the spring semester, providing approximately 275 spaces for faculty, staff, commuter student, and visitor use. With ample parking available on campus, remote parking at the Shuttle Lot located at Sweden Plaza (Dunn Tire), 4828 Lake Road will no longer be needed.

Volunteers who signed up to park in the Shuttle Lot may park on campus for the spring semester by displaying their valid Express Shuttle hangtag. Faculty and staff volunteers will receive a blue sticker to attach to the front of their hangtag, allowing vehicle parking in any blue lot. Commuter students may use their Express Shuttle hangtag to park in any orange lot.

Thank you to all Shuttle Lot volunteers! We could not have accommodated visitors or the rest of the campus community without you!

Great Plate Challenge Final Results

Congratulations to all those who competed in the 60-day Great Plate Challenge. We are pleased to announce that 24 employees participated with a very close competition at the end. Over three employees had 40 Great Plate days or more! Our grand prize winner of the mountain bike was Austin Warner with 47 total Great Plate days. Even though we only had one grand prize winner, we had other employees with such success with the Great Plate, that they feel like winners as well.

Barb Carpenter had a total of 40 Great Plate days and has lost weight as a result of this challenge. She liked that it forced her to stay on track and made her eat better. "It really gave me a broader outlook at what I should be eating when I thought I was doing such a great job before."

Paul Brundage also experienced some health improvements. Medication makes it hard for him to lose weight, but the Great Plate Challenge helped make it easier.

His energy level is up and he loves how he feels. Paul loves it so much he even dressed up as a Great Plate for Halloween! When asked if there was anything he didn't like during the challenge he only comment was "that it's over."

Craig McClinic had amazing success with this challenge, so much in fact he is still trying to make as many of his meals Great Plate meals as he can. Besides losing weight, Craig was able to cut his insulin for his diabetes in half due to his healthier eating. Craig's doctor even wanted to know his secret.

Congratulations to everyone who was willing to take on the Great Plate Challenge and even though the contest is over, keep up the good work!

Paul Brundage & Craig McClinic

Senior Director Search Update

The search continues as we look to fill the senior director of campus dining position. As you may recall from the July employee letter this person will be responsible for all of dining services with three key leadership positions reporting directly to this individual.

Currently we are in the process of conducting interviews with anticipation to have someone on board for the beginning of the spring semester. After this position has been filled the search for the director of culinary development will then begin.

We are very excited about strengthening our already highly respected dining program as we continue to support our overall vision for Dining Services.

New Timekeeping, Payroll, and HR Information System

In the August News & Views we reported that BASC will be implementing a new timekeeping, payroll, and HR information system that will bring together all of our pay-related and human resource functions into a single Web-based system. This new system from Automated Data Processing (ADP), called Workforce Now, will streamline processes, increase efficiency, and improve services to employees.

We are currently testing this system with a select group of employees and will go live with all employees beginning in January.

Here's how this impacts employees: There are new Kronos time clocks in most locations. The clocks still operate using a badge system, but employees will use their Eagle One ID cards to punch in and out. If you do not have a current Eagle One ID card, it is important that you get one at the Business Office located on the first floor of Brockway Hall before the end of the fall semester. More functions are available at the clock, and beginning in January, all BASC direct deposit statements, paychecks and W-2's will be processed, provided, and delivered by

ADP. In the future, employees will have secure, online access to many features of the new system.

We anticipate providing employee training at the January Return to Work Meeting on the new time clocks and also a preview of some of the online features to come.

Please contact any member of the project team (Vern VanSkiver, Denise Putt, Jermaine Toppin, Bev Ludke, Char Charles, John Mlyniec, and Steve Miller) if you have questions.
