Brockport Hosts 2016 Digital Commons User Group Meeting

Librarians from 12 states and the province of Ontario gathered last week at The College at Brockport for the 2016 Digital Commons Great Lakes User Group.

 On July 29, The College at Brockport and Drake Memorial Library hosted Starting an online journal workshop the 2016 Digital Commons User Group meeting. Librarians from the Midwest, the Northeast, Canada and NY gathered to share best practices and innovative ideas in repository management. Highlights of the conference included a workshop on Starting, Publishing, and Sustaining an Online Journal: Beginner's Workshop, and Creating Digital Special Collections, as well as an update from the sponsor, bepress, of all the upcoming new features.

All presentations were video recorded and are available at <http://digitalcommons.brockport.edu/dcglug/>. For more information on Digital Commons at Brockport, contact Kim Myers at kmyers@brockport.edu.
