Drake Library celebrates Open Access week

Drake Memorial Library has made available the full text of several faculty and emeriti books through Digital Commons at Brockport. We will feature a different one each day.

Dimensions of Liberal Education at Brockport

Our most recent publication is The “Dimensions of a Liberal Arts Education.” This award-winning book was published in 1980 by the College at Brockport. It features chapters by Steve Ireland, Emory Morris, Bruce Leslie, Chuck Edwards and others. Much of the work remains relevant; the photos are classic. Well worth a look!
