These Are The Days!!!

Opening

Just a little note from the editors...

These are the days...a new beginning with tomorrow and another experience for today. Don't let life pass you by with nothing to show for it -- create.

Don't be too busy or too serious -- have fun.

Don't deny yourself -- know yourself.

Don't hate -- understand.

Don't take anything for granted -- appreciate.

Take a look around you & enjoy life because this is it!!

- Liftbridge Bookstore
- Brockport Liquor & Lotto Discount
- Bittersweet

to the other businesses & offices who could not be named before the production of this yearbook.

Thank you for supporting the idea of a yearbook.

Appreciation...

During the production of this yearbook, many hardworking, energetic individuals contributed their time and ingenuity towards giving SUNY Brockport students a way to return to their college days. They have contributed countless hours, through their dedication, to capture the feeling of the students at Brockport. Therefore, it is with undeniable appreciation that the editors recognize the '94 SAGA team for their devotedness in making this yearbook a success.

Hmmm... what should I have for dinner... mashed potatoes?

Get it away from me!

Clueless???

HEELLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLLL!

Thanks!!
The SAGA team decided to dedicate this yearbook to the SUNY Brockport spirit. The spirit within each of us that devotes itself towards getting the most out of life while contributing charisma and character to our campus atmosphere. The spirit that keeps us going even when it would be easier on us to give up. A spirit that can be found in everyone.

Here at this institution, we come to learn, educate and better ourselves.

Even though we are here for education, we still know how to have fun !!!!!!!!

In The News...

President Clinton oversees "The Handshake of Peace" with Arab Yasser Arafat & Jew Yitzhak Rabin.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin disbanded the legislature to begin the move toward a free market economy. A commission was formed to create a new legislative framework, and elections for parliament were scheduled.

Sheik Abdel-Raham was charged on August 25, 1993, with commanding "a war of urban terrorism" in New York City; the bombing of the World Trade Center, Feb. 26.

Brockport Student Government welcomes Lt. Oliver North, a former Brockport student, to lecture on "Getting Involved." Seen here, Lt. North beside Mrs. Rakov.

Michael Jordan, the world's best basketball player and one of its most famous athletes, announced his retirement.

President Clinton oversees "The Handshake of Peace" with Arab Yasser Arafat & Jew Yitzhak Rabin.

The civil war in Bosnia began in 1992 when Serbs rebelled over a vote by the republic's Muslims and Croats to secede from Serb-dominated Yugoslavia and form two separate governments. As many as 200,000 people were dead or missing, including 10 United Nation relief workers who had died by October 1993.

Mogadishu, Somalia, was a city divided by warlord Ali Mahdi Mohamed, and by a rival, Mohamed Farah Aidid. Their ensuing contest for power led to a full scale war over Mogadishu, that killed 350,000 people in fighting and exacerbated a famine.

An Amtrak train hurtled off a bridge into an inky bayou in Saraland, Alabama, early on the morning of Sept. 22, 1993, shortly after a barge had struck and weakened the bridge.
In the midst of studying and preparing for the future, we all need to participate in one activity or another to relieve daily stress. Whatever the event is, it is sure to be filled with good times and friendships. Student life is not only the daily grudge and grime of classes and exams. Student life involves learning experiences that are also fun.

Friends are not only together when side by side, even one who is far away... is still in our thoughts
—Ludwig Van Beethoven

Chris,
A gentleman, a friend, a son, a brother, a nephew. This was a man who lived for today. He went out to find life. He helped us all to see the inner aspects of what life has to offer. Chris has left us now but will never be forgotten.

THERE COMES A TIME WHEN WE MUST PART
AND TRAVEL IN SEPARATE DIRECTIONS.
A MOMENT, IN WHICH OUR MEMORIES COINCIDE
WITH THE PRESENT TO REFLECT UPON
WHAT FRIENDSHIP AND COLLEGE HAS MEANT TO US.
IT IS, AT THIS TIME,
THAT THE WHOLE WORLD REMAINS OPEN TO US.
SO, BREAK THE MOLDS OF MEDIocrACY
AND ACCEPTING WHAT YOU DO NOT NEED.
TAKE CONTROL OF YOUR DESTINATION
AND INVOLVEMENT IN LIVING TO YOUR LITMOST POTENTIAL.
THE FUTURE HOLD SURPRISES OF BOTH THE TRYING AND ENJOYING KIND.
IT IS WITHIN OUR POWER, THOUGH, TO PREPARE OURSELVES
THROUGH THE EXPERIENCES AND THE POSSIBILITIES OF TODAY.
WHAT WE DO WITH ALL OUR TODAYS
WILL GIVE RISE TO OUR FUTURE ACTUALIZATION.
AS SEEN THROUGHOUT ALL STAGES OF LIFE.
THIS VAST AND INCREDIBLY COMPLEX UNIVERSE IS ASKING US
TO ASSUME OUR POSITION AMONG THE WORLD COMMUNITY.
LET'S ENGAGE IN WHAT HOPES TO BE AN ENJOYABLE JOURNEY;
BECAUSE........................ THESE ARE THE DAYS.
Finally, a long, hard, but fun, year has passed by. The development of this yearbook has involved many PAINSTAKING, GRUESOME, GHASTLY hours of our precious time...but it was all worth it in the end.

Deadlines were missed, but weren't they made to be broken. Pictures were taken several times, due to extenuating circumstances, staff was at an all time high, but the NY Stock Exchange reported it fell to an all time low before closing, & costs were very reasonable, but due to inflation, now they are just reasonable.

Special thanks to Jim Dusen, expert college photographer, for allowing us to call him whenever needed, more than frequently, for ideas and team photos. AND HEELLPPP! And grace goes to... Mike Andraci, for....Best Communicator in "SUNY GOES TO HOLLYWOOD." Thanks to our wonderful advisor, And...just kidding, Cindy Rizzo, for her support, willingness to SLAVE, and ever eternal wisdom-- oh wise one. Also, we appreciate BSG for allowing us the opportunity to stress ourselves to the MAX.

And I would like to thank Walter for his undying, unceasing, unpretentious support, and I couldn't have made a better friend. Walt, you have done a great job!!!!
