Resolution #6, 1979-80
Faculty Senate Meeting: 11/5/79

Summer School Calendar

The Summer sessions calendar should be prepared according to the following principles:

1. There will be three 23 day sessions with one hour 45 minutes classes (2415 minutes). Each session will begin on Tuesday after registration on Monday.
2. No student may enroll for more than 12 credit hours in any combination of Summer sessions. No more than 6 credit hours may be taken in any single session.
3. The first session will begin a week after commencement. The second session will begin the week after closing of public elementary and secondary schools. The third session will end the Thursday prior to the Labor Day weekend.
4. Session I will be primarily undergraduate instruction; Session II will be undergraduate and graduate instruction; Session III will be primarily graduate and special programs of instruction.
5. Workshops, minisessions, and other special schedules should be confined to Session III but will be permitted during the entire Summer. Such special schedules should not overlap sessions.
