Faculty Senate Meeting 4/27/81
Agenda Item VI. A.

Resolution on Professional Ethics Committee Records

BE IT RESOLVED That the President of the Faculty Senate, or his designee, in conjunction with the Chairperson of the Senate Committee on Professional Ethics, be directed to destroy all files, notes, evidence, and material relating to cases brought before the Ethics Committee prior to May 1, 1978, with the exception of the written record of the determination of each case.

That on May 1 of each succeeding year, the President of the Faculty Senate, or his/her designee, in conjunction with the Chairperson of the Senate Committee on Professional Ethics, be responsible for the destruction of all files, notes, evidence, and material relating to cases brought before the Ethics Committee three years or more before that date, with the exception of any unresolved items, and the written record of determination of any case.
