PROPOSED REVISION
PROBATION AND DISMISSAL POLICY

Be it Resolved that a minimum grade point average of .50 will be established for matriculated students. First semester full-time students with a g.p.a. below .50 will be automatically dismissed. Part-time students will have to earn a .50 g.p.a. after completing 12 hours of academic work, or will be automatically dismissed.

Rationale:

Currently, there is no minimum; a student earning a g.p.a. below a 2.0 is placed upon probation even if no quality points were earned.

The State of New York maintains a .50 g.p.a. requirement in order that a student maintains eligibility for financial aid.

Students who fail everything (or received two D's) when taking fifteen hours in their first semester have little chance of succeeding.
