RESOLUTION FROM THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON ENVIRONMENT

- WHEREAS: The College Community has the responsibility to foster and promote public education by word and deed, and
- WHEREAS: environmental issues have risen to the forefront of public concerns, and
- WHEREAS: effective waste management is part of a total program relevant to the conservation of resources, and
- WHEREAS: we are obligated to align our community to goals established by our county legislature by 1990,

BE IT RESOLVED:

that a self-sustaining paper recycling program be organized on the Campus;

that it include, but not be limited to, collections from the Allen Administration Building and the Seymour College Union;

that this program be co-ordinated by Plant Management personnel and be staffed by students.
