Resolution to the College Faculty Senate in Regard to College "Drop" Policy

from the Student Policies Committee

October, 1989

WHEREAS it is becoming increasingly more difficult for students and faculty members to effect a meeting for the purpose of obtaining drop-signatures, and

WHEREAS many academic departments are unable to provide the staff necessary to support drop-signatures until the close of the extended business day, which is six p.m. during the "add" period.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the "drop-signature" no longer be required for students to drop a course. Instead, a student must formally "drop" a course according to a standard procedure specified by the Office of the Registrar, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that each morning before nine a.m. during the "add" period, the Registrar shall provide to all academic departments, information pertaining to the drop transactions for the previous day.
