MONTREAL MEMORIAL FUND RESOLUTION

WHEREAS

We, the Faculty of the State University of New York College at Brockport take the tragic occasion of the massacre of women students at the University of Montreal to affirm our rejection of violence as a means of conflict resolution, especially violence toward women as well as violence toward men, conversely to encourage action to promote harmony between women and men, to preserve our vision of academia as a peaceable haven whose members eventually promote a better world;

AND

AND

BE IT RESOLVED

that a memorial fund be established at the State University of New York, College at Brockport in memory of the student women slain in the massacre at the University of Montreal on December 6, 1989 and that the President communicate such to the President of the University of Montreal.
