RESOLUTION ON ASSESSMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

RESOLVED: That an Assessment Advisory Council be appointed by the President of the College, upon consultation with the President of the Faculty Senate.

That this Council, for the time being, consist of no less than eight and no more than twelve persons.

That the Council be charged with

1. devising means for heightening awareness among Faculty and Staff of the importance and utility of assessment through workshops, conferences, Faculty-at-Large Meetings, etc.
2. developing a five-year plan for implementing the assessment process, accompanied by a realistic budget.

That the members of this Council constitute the core of any future or expanded Council.

That the Council report to the President of the College by the end of this current semester, and keep the Faculty Senate Executive Committee informed of its activities.
