Resolution

from the SUNY Brockport Faculty Senate

April 1993

WHEREAS Laurie Adams has faithfully and conscientiously served in the capacity of secretary to the President of the Faculty Senate for the past four years, and

WHEREAS she has unselfishly represented the EOC while successfully and simultaneously executing all of her duties as secretary to both the Executive Committee and to the full Senate itself, and

WHEREAS she has consistently and diligently assisted four different Presidents of the Faculty Senate by masterfully interpreting numerous motions and amendments (both friendly and otherwise), and

WHEREAS she has mastered the fax machine after only 4 years, and WHEREAS she has steadfastly maintained that cheery attitude, that friendly smile, in spite of the challenges of working with some 60+ friendly, agreeable, courteous, and generally all-around nice people (senators), and

WHEREAS she has, without hesitation, fulfilled all obligations of her office at an extremely high level of competency and has gone beyond normal expectations in the performance of her responsibilities, and

WHEREAS there is an expectation (bribes will be extended) that she might be willing to continue as secretary to the Faculty Senate for yet another year, therefore

BE IT RESOLVED that the Faculty Senate hereby recognizes Ms. Laurie Adams for outstanding service, unselfish dedication, and significant contributions to the State University of New York College at Brockport as secretary to the Faculty Senate.
