Proposed Change of "C-" Policy

Submitted by
Faculty Senate Graduate Policy and Research Committee

The current Grading System provides in part as follows: "A letter grade is given for every course in which a student has registered. Academic credit is earned for grades of "A", "A-", "B+", "B", "B-", "C+", "C", "C-", or "S." (Graduate Studies Catalog 1997-1999, page 35)

The proposed change would read as follows: "A letter grade is given for every course in which a student has registered. Grades earned include "A", "A-", "B+", "B", "B-", "C+", "C", "E," "S," "U" (Unsatisfactory), "I" (Incomplete), or "PR" (In Progress). No credit is awarded for E, U, I, or PR grades.

This change deletes "C-" as a graduate grade. There is no change to the balance of the information described under Grading System on p. 35.

If adopted the new grading system will take effect in September 1999.
