RE: Committee Actions for Approval

Attached are proposals that have been approved by the FS Undergraduate Committee. Would you please distribute them to the Executive Committee for their action and approval on Feb 21 and for subsequent senate approval.

1. The committee approved the proposal from the Communication Department as a minor change. It involved a course change.
2. The committee approved the proposal from the Chemistry Department as a minor change. It involved a change in course selection.
3. The committee approved the proposal from the Anthropology Department as a minor change. It involved a change in course selection.
4. The proposal from the Business and Economics Department was approved as a major change. It involved course changes, course substitutions and GPA requirements. The changes were in response to state regulations regarding the accounting degree and certification.

RE: Change in course requirement for JRN (journalism) major
DT: 11/22/99

Bacheler record
11/29 LK

The Department of Communication Journalism track wishes to make a minor change in the major. Currently, CMC 262 Intro to Mass Communication is a required course in Journalism. We wish to deregister that class and substitute instead CMC 210 Communication Revolutions, a breadth component course already being taught as a required course within the Communication Studies track. The proposed change is as follows:

CURRENT REQUIREMENT:

CMC 262 Intro to Mass Comm

PROPOSED REQUIREMENT:

CMC 210 Communication Revolutions

Thank you for your attention to this request.
