American Sign Language Resolution

Whereas:

American Sign Language is recognized by the New York State Department of Education as meeting the foreign language requirement for teacher certification and ASL is acceptable for The SUNY Board of Trustees General Education Requirements for students earning baccalaureate degrees in areas that include social services, teaching and/or fields that may have significant contact with the deaf community and Rochester is the home of the National Technical Institute of the Deaf, therefore

Be it resolved that

American Sign Language may meet the foreign language requirement of the General Education Program for any and all students awarded baccalaureate degrees from the SUNY College at Brockport.
