Graduate Probation/Dismissal Policy

All graduate courses completed and/or attempted will be included in determining a graduate student's official semester and cumulative GPA. The cumulative GPA will be calculated at the end of summer session, as well as at the end of each academic year semester. Both an overall cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 and a GPA of at least 3.0 in the Plan of Study are required for graduation.

After completing nine or more graduate credit hours, matriculated graduate students whose cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 will be placed on academic probation. Students will receive written notification of their probationary status from the Office of Graduate Studies. A student placed on academic probation is expected to consult with his/her graduate advisor no later than the first week of the semester to discuss his/her plans to address academic deficiencies.

After attempting nine credits in probationary status, the student's file will be reviewed by the program's Graduate Committee. If the student's cumulative GPA is a minimum of 3.0, the student is automatically removed from probation. If the student does not achieve the minimum 3.0 GPA, the Graduate Committee will either:

- Dismiss the student from the program immediately; or
- Continue the student on probation for an additional six credits, with the proviso that dismissal is automatic if a minimum of 3.0 is not then achieved.

A student who has been dismissed from any graduate degree program at SUNY Brockport for academic deficiencies must wait at least one calendar year before reapplying or enrolling in any graduate course at SUNY Brockport. Readmission and acceptance of any previously earned credits will be at the discretion of the graduate program to which the student has reapplied. Graduate students can be readmitted to graduate study at SUNY Brockport a maximum of one time. Students who are readmitted must meet the requirements in effect at the time of readmission and must meet with their advisor to design a new Plan of Study.

Individual programs may set requirements more restrictive than this policy.
