Re: PROPOSED PROGRAM MODIFICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF ADVANCED STUDIES (CAS) IN EDUCATIONAL ADMINISTRATION

This is a request to convert an EDA elective to an EDA required course in the Certificate of Advanced Studies (CAS) program in Educational Administration.

In order to meet accrediting body guidelines, it is necessary to convert EDA 830: Program Management and Instructional Leadership from EDA elective to EDA required status. Our latest accrediting body critique identified 20 accrediting body guidelines that are not being met. It is impossible to pack the required performance measures identified in these guidelines into our current set of required courses. (Only required courses in which it is assumed that every student masters every competency are eligible for review.) Eleven of the guidelines in question can be mastered by converting EDA 830 to a required course. The remaining nine guidelines are being distributed across existing required courses. There are no budget implications with this requested change.
