Environmental Health and Safety Policy Statement

Proposed Policy Statement:

It is the responsibility of SUNY Brockport and the campus community to ensure that our educational programs and other activities protect the environment and promote the health and safety of our students, our employees, and the surrounding community. SUNY Brockport is committed to providing high quality public higher education and considers student success as its highest priority. Integrating our commitment to student success with our commitment to a healthful and safe environment is a natural extension of the educational experience. Students should have the opportunity to enhance their awareness of environmental, health, and safety issues as provided for in SUNY Brockport's Environmental Health and Safety Management System.
