1. PROPOSAL TITLE:

Please be somewhat descriptive, for example, Graduate Probation/Dismissal Proposal rather than Graduate Proposal.

MS Mental Health Counseling program – seven years to completion

2. BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF PROPOSAL:

The Department of Counselor Education’s new MS Mental Health Counseling program (beginning fall 2007) is a 60 credit degree program. Given that our programs are set up to be taken on a part-time basis and that many of our students take courses on a part-time basis, seven years to completion of degree will allow our students the necessary time to complete their degree. Further, students enrolled in Public Administration’s MPA (42 – 45 credit program) have up to 7 years to complete their master’s degree. Thus, the department is requesting that students enrolled in the MS program be granted seven (7) years for completion of their degree.

3. ANTICIPATED DATE OF IMPLEMENTATION:

Re: Proposal for 7 years for completion

The Department of Counselor Education's MSEd- Counseling Program (college, school and community counselor emphases) is a 48 credit degree. Students enrolled in this program have 5 years for completion of their degree. This is doable for our students because most of them are part-time students.
