Resolution in Support of the Public Higher Education Empowerment and Innovation Act
(April 5, 2010)

WHEREAS the State of New York is already projecting major budget shortfalls in coming years, and

WHEREAS the State of New York has already cut or proposed reductions of more than half a billion dollars in support to the State University of New York over the last three years, and

WHEREAS student success at The College at Brockport is jeopardized by either further large tuition increases in times of economic trouble or further reductions in operational support from the State, and

WHEREAS the Public Higher Education Empowerment and Innovation Act provides for a fair and predictable tuition policy consistent with the needs of students and the financial demands of providing a quality university education, and

WHEREAS the Public Higher Education Empowerment and Innovation Act seeks to reduce the bureaucratic obstacles between the State University of New York and other sources of revenue generation available to other institutions of higher education within and beyond the State of New York, and

WHEREAS there is no other reasonable proposal under consideration to solve the current funding challenges within the State University of New York

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED The College Senate of The College at Brockport, State University of New York urges the State of New York to make a commitment to “maintenance of effort” in the provision of state dollars and to avoid using tuition increases as a mechanism for moving away from covering mandatory costs, and be it further

RESOLVED that the College Senate of The College at Brockport, State University of New York endorses the Public Higher Education Empowerment and Innovation Act, and be it further

RESOLVED that the President of the Brockport College Senate work to ensure that this endorsement is widely known.

Approved by the College Senate of The College at Brockport on Monday, April 5, 2010.
