

#8

Part 1: Student Information

Name	Peter Brand
Brockport email address	pbran1@brockport.edu
When will you complete your undergraduate degree?	May 2020

Part 2: Thesis Information

During the Honors College Graduation Ceremony, students are called up to be recognized on the stage in groups organized by academic major or program. Each graduate is then presented with the Prometheus Medal.

Choose the academic major or program that you prefer to be grouped with (e.g., Psychology, Dance, Education Certification). In most cases, this will be the academic major/program that you completed your thesis in.	Psychology
Your thesis director's name:	Jennifer Ratcliff
Thesis Director's Email	jratclif@brockport.edu
Your thesis director's academic department (e.g., Biology, Art, History):	Psychology
Honors Thesis Title	The Mortality of Mortality: A Terror Management Theory for Anti-Atheist Prejudice

The Honors College requires students to present their thesis in an academic forum as an oral or poster presentation.

My Honors thesis was or will be presented on (specify date):	Apr 08, 2020
My Honors thesis was or will be presented at	Scholars Day

Permission is required from the student to have the Honors thesis placed in Brockport's Digital Commons collection, an open source archive that is freely available to readers worldwide. Currently, there are over 250 Honor theses in the Digital Commons collection, which have been downloaded more than 100K times. Before giving permission to add your thesis to Digital Commons, we recommend that you first discuss it with your thesis director, who may recommend another publication outlet such as a peer-reviewed journal.

Please let us know if you would like to have your thesis added to the online collection. Yes, please add my Senior Honors Thesis to the Digital Commons thesis collection.

Publication of your thesis on Digital Commons requires identification of relevant keywords and/or phrases to enhance the ability to search for and index your thesis

Note: We recommend that you discuss appropriate keywords/phrases with your thesis director prior to submitting them here.

Please indicate up to six keywords/phrases below.

Prejudice, morals, atheism, death, anxiety