Entropy

The water just isn't the same lacking your hands, without my name on your mouth, or the wind on bared arms, but to admit that I'm scared would require I had a voice to speak it with; still this white noise is so damn loud without your breath in my ear, and it's shocking the depth of emotion that I witness when deprived of your caress; How absurd that just your presence stirs me, and the lack of laments on every single inch of my lips, and each one of my fingertips.
