

Attention all Graduate and Undergraduate students. YOU'RE INVITED!

Third Annual Master's Level Graduate Research Conference (MaRC)

The College at Brockport

Saturday, April 26, 2014

10 am – 5 pm

(Registration: Seymour College Union, Main Lounge 9 – 10:30 am)

Free and open to the public.

Learn about master's level research and study across the disciplines at the graduate level.

Come see graduate students from more than 25 universities—emerging artists and educators, scientists and engineers, health and human service professionals, and business executives—present their research and creative work.

Stay to hear faculty and alumni professionals discuss trends in their fields and tips for career success.

Join us for a post-conference networking reception.
